

PRESS RELEASE

The annual Carleen Tea Treat will take place on Saturday 3rd August.

This is the third revival of a local village event that faded out some years ago but is still fondly remembered by the parents of today's children. "It's all about celebrating the community" said the organisers.

The event is a joint venture between Carleen Village Hall and the Great Wheal Vor Community and Environment Group. It starts at 2 pm and everyone's welcome to come and join in the procession to Trew Green led by local folk musicians and then return to the Hall for the Breage Silver Band, face painting, puppet show, country fair games and a traditional Tea Treat. There will be prizes at 5pm for the games and the best homemade flags.

There is a ceilidh (barn dance) in the evening at the Village Hall with the Rosevilles playing, with a licensed bar and an amazing raffle. Ceilidh Tickets are £14 and include a pasty. To book your tickets please email whealvor21@gmail.com
